

What does your friend look like?

What will you do together?

A large, empty white rounded rectangle in the center of the page, intended for a child to draw or write their response to the questions.